
Declared a “country-rock sensation” by COWGIRL Magazine, Lucie Tiger has steadily carved out a place for herself as a respected songwriter and musician in the country music industry. She’s recently played Nashville’s iconic Whiskey Jam, opened for Tyler Farr, headlined the WC Handy Music Festival supporting the North Mississippi Allstars and celebrated her seventh charting single on the Nashville Music Row Chart. Listed as an Artist to Watch in 2025 by Music Connection Magazine, and with two 2025 Josie Independent Music Award nominations for Artist of the Year (Modern Country/Pop Country) and Vocalist of the Year (Female Country), she’s not slowing down anytime soon.
